CREATIVE PHOTOGRAPHY WALES TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Purchase of existing images are for single use unless agreed for multiple use or in perpetuity in advance. All images remain the copyright of Creative Photography Wales

No image shall be adapted, manipulated, cropped or otherwise modified unless specifically requested and authorised in advance

Images shall be used for the sole purpose(s) agreed at the point of commissioning and paid for by the client. Web images sold as single use only shall only be used on one page only at the size and location (i.e. Home page or other) agreed.

All images will be normally supplied as full size jpegs for publication or low resolution for website use. TIFF or RAW file originals will be available for all commissioned work and by prior arrangement for purchased images.

All work unless commissioned by and solely for the use of a specific client will remain the property and copyright of Creative Photography Wales. Copyright for work carried out on commissioned basis dependent on specific prior arrangement.

Contractual arrangements are between Creative Photography Wales and the client only. No image supplied in digital form shall be sold to, reproduced, adapted or copied for use by third parties and shall not be printed or produced in 'hard-copy' form apart from the purpose agreed at commissioning and paid for by the client.

Payment for work by BACS or cheque within 30 days. Interest charges apply for overdue payments.
